Reason

Peter Germann has served the Swiss and international Aeromodelling community for many decades.

In Switzerland he was a key person in control line aeromodelling for over three decades, working in technical committees, acting as successful sportsman and organiser of events and competitions. In addition to that, he dedicated much effort to educating and teaching judges and he was a driving force in developing and establishing electrical drives in F2B. Further, he served as president of the Swiss Aeromodelling Federation and as board member of the Swiss Aero Club for six years.

On the international level, he participated in countless WC and EC as a successful sportsman and held the role of contest director at multiple international competitions like the F3A WC 2015 in Dübendorf. He served as CIAM F2 subcommittee member and F2 technical expert for more than two decades and contributed in adopting and optimising rules and procedures due to the ever changing requirements. Also on the international level, he spent countless hours in improving the judges levels by developing new methods, designing and organising judges classes.
