History of the FAI Women’s 15 m Class / 18 m Class

- 1981 At Cherence / France the 2nd FAI Women’s European Gliding Championships took place in two classes: Standard Class and for the first time in the 15 m class. The FAI Women’s 15 m Challenge Cup was donated in 1981 and awarded to the winner of the 15 m Class at Cherence.
- 1999 the 11th WEGC at Leszno / Poland was the last European event. The European Championships were replaced by World Championships.
- 2001 The 1st Women’s World Gliding Championships took place at Pociunai / Lithuania in the Club Class, Standard Class and 15 m Class. The FAI Women’s 15 m Challenge Cup was transferred to the WWGC and was awarded to the winner of the 1st FAI WWGC.
- 2011 The FAI Women’s 15 m Challenge Cup was damaged and replaced by a trophy donated by FlyPink, the Italian association of female glider pilots and awarded to the champion of the 15 m class at the 7th WWGC at Issoudun / France.
- 2017 The Class was changed to the Womens World 18m Class Championships

Description of the original Cup: The first FAI Women’s 15 m Challenge Cup was a 52 cm high classic silver trophy on a marble base engraved “ Vol à Voile Championnat d’ Europe Feminine” with the names of the champions engraved on labels around the base.

Description of the Cup:

The first Women’s 15 m FAI Challenge Cup, which was damaged, was left behind at the 7th WWGC at the aeroclub in Issoudun.

The new FAI Women’s Challenge Cup 15 m class consists of 2 nickel-silver cylinders, in the middle of which a wave-shaped brass structure appears. The upper cylinder is engraved with the winner’s names.
