For the NAC of Germany the undesigned IPC Delegate suggests to the IPC to nominate for the

LEONARDO DA VINCI DIPLOMA of the FAI

Mr. Marco Pflüger, Germany

for his outstanding athletic achievements in competitive parachuting nationally and internationally.

Mr. Pflügers achievements meet or surpass substantially the following criteria:

1. He obtained more than three consecutive times the title of National Parachuting Champion;
2. He obtained multiple times the title of World Absolute Parachuting Champion and at least twice the title of Combined Champion at an International Parachuting Competition;
3. He was at least once a member of a World Champion Formation Skydiving Team (CISM) and at least twice member of a Champion Team at an International Parachuting Competition;
4. Established at least three World Parachuting Records.

A detailed and complete resume of Mr. Marco Pflügers sportsmanship will be handed in by postal mail immediately after it has been signed by the NAC.
