

USA
to host the
27th World Aerobatic Championships

Location

North Texas
Regional Airport
Grayson County, Texas

Home of the
USA National Aerobatic Championships
since 1972

North Texas Regional Airport

North Texas Regional Airport KGYI

70 miles (112 KM)
North of Dallas, Texas

and

225 miles (362 KM)
North of Houston, Texas

Airport Facilities

- Ample hangars for storage, maintenance and hospitality
- Office space for Contest Administration
- Ramp space and areas for Team Village
- Internet Access
- Three judging locations available
- Fire and Rescue Services

Easy to Get To

■ Dallas provides convenient international air freight and passenger travel

■ Houston provides one of the largest sea ports in the USA

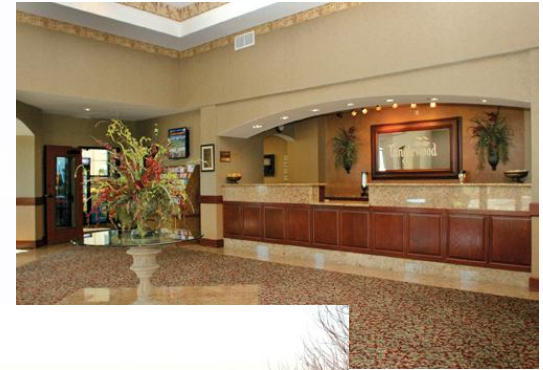

Aerobatic Box

Hotel Accommodations

- Tanglewood Resort at Lake Texoma
- Sherman/Denison area offers many fine hotels

Local Activities

Lake Texoma: Boating, Fishing, Water Sports
Shopping
Casinos
Historical Sites

Contest Director Chris Rudd

Contest Director for regional contests in the U.S. Southeast and South Central regions.

Assistant to United States judge Tom Adams at the 2009 WAC in Silverstone, England and the 2010 WAAC in Radom, Poland.

Judge at the Yak 52 2012 Championships in Russia.

Chris runs a business for repair and maintenance of aerobatic aircraft. He has served as mechanic to airshow pilot Patty Wagstaff, to Svetlana Kapanina in Seoul, South Korea in 2010, to Skip Stewart in Xian, China 2011, and for Hubie Tolson in UAE, 2011.

Co-Contest Director, 2009 USA Nationals

Assistant Contest Director Lorrie Penner

IAC Achievement Award Chair from 2006 to current day

IAC Secretary from 2006-2008

Secretary, newsletter editor and webmaster for Ohio

IAC Chapter 34 for 10 years

USA Mid-America Regional contest
Registrar and Scoring Director for 8 years

Volunteer Coordinator, AWAC 2008

Assistant Contest Director, 2012 USA
Nationals

Private pilot Power and Glider

Flight Director Tom Adams

IAC Director for 20 years

USA Team Manager at WAAC
2012

Judge at WAAC 2010

Flight Director for AWAC 2008

Active competitor who has flown all categories up through Unlimited

Aircraft Assembly

■ Dallas

international air freight can be shipped to the contest site for assembly in the Plyler hangar at KGYI.

■ Houston

An assembly hangar has been secured with Harvey & Rihn Aviation

Aircraft Available

- Aircraft will be available to those interested. Contact Tom Adams;
fly4funta@gmail.com

- Organizers committed to assist competitors in finding aircraft
 - Extras
 - Sukhois
 - CAPS

US Pilot license process

Non-US citizens who want to fly an N-registered airplane in the USA, will need an FAA certificate.

Our government liaison, Wayne Roberts will be in charge of guiding interested pilots through the application process with the FAA.

Contact: wroberts@lakecityaero.com

Aerobatic Practice Boxes

■ Practice areas within one short flight of the contest site

■ Practice slots at the contest site will be available 5 days prior on a limited basis

Oklahoma:

Ardmore 74mi/119km

Page Field, 169mi/272km

Oklahoma City

Texas:

Olney 82mi/132km

Akroville 66mi/106km

Lancaster 78mi/125km

October Weather

	September	October
High Temp. Avg.	85 F/29.4 C	79 F/26.1 C
Low Temp. Avg.	65 F/18.3 C	55 F/12.7 C
Average Precipitation.	3.5 in/8.9cm	5 in/12.7cm
Wind Speed	5kts	7kts
Cloud Free Days (%)	45%	35%
Partly Cloudy Days (%)	25%	30%
Cloudy Days (%)	30%	35%

Registration

- Registration through the website at: <http://wac2013.com/>

Fee Schedule

- includes lodging and meals from October 9-20,2013

Competitors			Other Team Members/Observers
Payment date	Double	Single	Double	Single
Early	$2,350 USD	$2,500 USD	$2,000 USD	$2,200 USD
Late	$2,750 USD	$3,000 USD	$2,500 USD	$2,750 USD

Opening and Closing Ceremonies

- Opening Ceremonies - parade of Nations
- Closing - banquet and trophy presentation

Thank You!

See you at WAC 2013