

TROPHIES REPORT

by CIAM Secretary, Luca Gialanella

At this moment, we have 56 trophies registered: 37 are World Championships trophies, 4 are dedicated to European Championships and 15 are reserved for World Cup classes.

In the last two years, with the help of FAI jury members, who must be thanked for their cooperation, we made a complete check of our trophies' conditions. According to the reports, the CIAM Bureau has decided to make further actions, such as repairs which are absolutely necessary in order to present trophies in good shape: for F3A Individual and Team trophies, for example, they have been already done. I would remember that, according to rule B.17.4.a, <the holders are responsible for maintaining the trophies in good condition>. It was decided that monitoring will continue each year.

At the 2002 March Plenary Meeting, six new trophies were presented: four crystal trophies for World Cup winners in classes F5B and F5D (two perpetual and two souvenir trophies), donated by Mr. Ernest Kropka, organiser of Eurotour; two new cups for World Cup winners in Space model classes S4B and S9B individual, donated by Mr. Marian Jorik, from Slovakia.

As far as trophies missing at the 2001 Free Flight World Championships in USA last October, it was announced by the USA delegate, Mr. Dave Brown, that the AMA will cover shipping expenses for trophies not awarded to the winners yet. The relevant trophies are five:

- a) the F1A Team Trophy, Daumerie Cup, which Slovakia didn't take to USA: the 2001 winning team is Ukraine and the trophy is still in Slovakia;
- b) the F1B Team Trophy, Penaud Cup, which is still in Bosnia-Herzegovina (visas refused to get to USA): the winning team is Sweden;
- c) the F1C Individual Trophy, Victor Tatin Cup, which is still in Bosnia-Herzegovina: the 2001 champion is Mr. Babenko, Ukraine;
- d) the F1C Team Trophies, Franjo Kluz and Kosmonautica Vase, which are still in Bosnia-Herzegovina: the 2001 winning team is Ukraine.

The up-to-date situation of trophies is enclosed to this report.
