Phil Ball is one of only three people to have represented Great Britain in F1A Glider, F1B Rubber and F1C Power classes at FAI World or Continental Championships, in the course of which he has been a member of three F1C Power medal-winning teams. This represents a high level of dedication to FAI sport at the highest level.

Over the years Phil Ball has also been national senior champion no less than 19 times, competing in all outdoor Free Flight classes, both domestic and FAI. On one occasion during a fly-off, his Open Rubber model was timed for over 88 minutes, the longest single flight in any British contest.

In addition to being a highly-successful competitor Phil, has served on an Area Committee of the British Model Flying Association (BMFA), and continues to serve on the BMFA Free Flight Technical Committee. He has also been involved in the promotion of this branch of the sport at the British National Power Championships. He has been a frequent contributor to the model press and has presented several technical papers at the annual British Free Flight Forum.
